Numb.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday Auguſt 24. to Thurſday Auguſt 27. 1702.

ST. James's, Auguſt 22. The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, and the reſt of Your Majeſty's Commiſſioners for the Lieutenancy of Your City of London.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Since Your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to declare to the World the good Opinion You have conceived of us, Your moſt obedient Subjects, and of our Affection and Zeal for Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by intruſting in our hands the Management of the Militia of Your Imperial City; We humbly crave Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That that Power wherewith Your Majeſty hath inveſted us, ſhall always be exerted in ſupporting Your Majeſty in Your Hereditary and moſt Undoubted Right to the Throne of theſe Your Kingdoms, the Limitation of the Crown according to the ſeveral Acts of Settlement, and in preſerving the Peace and Welfare of this Your Loyal City.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Dutiful Acknowledgments for the repeated Inſtances You have been graciouſly pleaſed to give, of Your Majeſty's Royal Care and Zeal for the Preſervation of our Church and State; and therefore ſhall always offer up our Prayers to Almighty God, to grant Your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over us, as the moſt effectual Means of ſecuring the eſtabliſhed Religion, as well as Liberty and Proſperity to us and our Poſterity.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

New York, June 23. The Rt. Hon. the Lord Cornbury, Governor of this Province and of New York, having on the 7th Inſtant received a Letter from the Lords Commiſſioners of Trade and Plantations, with one incloſed from the Lords of Her Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council, containing an Account of the Death of His late Majeſty, and Directions to Proclaim Her preſent Majeſty; his Lordſhip on Thurſday the 18th did, in the preſence of the Gentlemen of Her Majeſty's Council here, attended by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council, the Clergy, and all the Gentlemen and Merchants, and other Inhabitants of this City, cauſe Her Majeſty to be Proclaimed accordingly: Which Solemnity was performed with all imaginable Reſpect and Duty to Her Majeſty, and with all the Demonſtrations of Joy and Loyalty that could be expreſſed. And the next day his Lordſhip went over the Water into the Jerſeys, and cauſed Her Majeſty to be Proclaimed there with the like Solemnity; Her Majeſty's Subjects of that Province giving alſo all poſſible Expreſſions of their Duty and Fidelity, and Demonſtrations of Joy ſuitable to ſo great an Occaſion.

Madrid, Aug, 10. N. S. A Review was taken laſt week of 900 Foot quartered near this Place, which were commanded to Catalonia, from whence they are to be ſent by Sea to Italy. The Governor of Melita, a Town belonging to the Spaniards on the Coaſt of Africa, having ſent Advice, that the Moors threaten to beſiege that Place, two Galleys are ordered thither with Ammunition and other Neceſſaries for its Defence. We have had a Report, that a Squadron of the Engliſh Fleet was lately ſeen off Corunna, which has put this Court into great Conſternation.

Dantzick, Aug. 19. The King of Poland is marching towards Warſaw with the remains of his Army, and the 8000 Saxons that have lately joined him, having repaired the Loſs of his Artillery in the late Fight of Pinſchoff, by taking with him all the Cannon that was in Cracow. The King of Sweden came to that Place in Perſon the 11th Inſtant, and aſſured the Inhabitants of his Protection, after which he returned to his Camp near that Town. Letters from Livonia ſay, the Muſcovites make Excurſions into that Country, and commit great Ravages there, and that General Schlippenbach continues to get together near Pernau as many as he can of the Livonian Nobility and Militia, but cannot yet make up a Body of them ſufficient to oppoſe the Muſcovites.

Francfort, Auguſt 23. There have been great Rejoicings in theſe Parts for the Victory obtained by Prince Eugene over the French Army in Italy, which we have received an Account of by ſeveral Expreſſes, who all aſſure us, That the Loſs on the ſide of the French amounts to 7 or 8000 Men, and that of the Imperialiſts does not exceed 2000. The King of the Romans came the 19th Inſtant to Heydelberg to viſit his Queen, and returned the next day to the Imperial Army before Landau, which is greatly encouraged by his Preſence to carry on vigorouſly the Siege of that Place. They have already made ſeveral Lodgments upon the Counterſcarp, and raiſed ſeveral Batteries on ſome of them; Yeſterday they were to ſtorm the Cittadel, of which we have great reaſon to expect a good Account, and they are making Preparations for a General Attack upon the Counterſcarp, which the French themſelves have no Hopes of preſerving, not having in theſe Parts an Army ſufficient to relieve the Place. In the mean time the Cannon continues to play very furiouſly on both ſides, and a red-hot Bullet from the Town unfortunately fell into a Barrel of Gunpowder which ſtood near one of our Batteries, and killed and wounded above 30 of our Granadiers. Our Batteries have already made ſeveral Breaches in the Wall of the Town, which they are making wider, The Convoy of Artillery and Ammunition, which has been preparing here for our Army, will be ſent away in a day or two. The Elector of Mentz and the Elector Palatine are both gone from hence, the firſt to Mentz, and the other to Weinheim, where his Electoral Highneſs intends to ſtay ſome time before he goes to Heydelberg. We hear, the French King has conſented that the Duke of Lorrain ſhall obſerve a Neutrality, upon the ſame Conditions which had already been allowed by the Emperor.

Majeſty,